Engage the Author: Dr. Frank Rogers Jr.

Leading this event is Dr. Rogers Jr., the Muriel Bernice Roberts Professor of Spiritual Formation and Narrative Pedagogy at Claremont School of Theology and Co-Director of the Center for Engaged Compassion. He is the author of Practicing Compassion and Compassion in Practice – The Way of Jesus.

"Compassion is the heartbeat of humanity. We are most fully human most fully ourselves then we see someone in the truth of his or her experience and are moved to respond with kindness and care."
— Frank Rogers Jr.

Compassion is more than sympathetic feeling,

it's the bond of human connection. Through rich and moving stories, Frank Rogers shows readers how to follow the path of radical compassion in a world filled with boundless discrimination, violence, and greed. As you follow the steps of his Compassion Practice, you will learn how to love yourself and others.

"Everybody believes in compassion but nobody tells you how to practice it. Until now Frank Rogers turns compassion into a doable daily practice – as simple as catching your breath and taking your pulse. If you want to read a book that actually has the capacity to change your life (and the world) this is the book to read."
